

Freelance Tagalog Interpreter - Supporting Migrant Domestic Workers

Position: Freelance Tagalog Interpreter (Self-employed)

Schedule: some Sundays and weekday evenings

Location: Remote

Rate: £18 per hour

About us

The Voice of Domestic Workers is an education and campaigning charity calling for justice for Britain's over 22,000 Migrant Domestic Workers. We provide educational and community activities while working to alleviate the exclusion and marginalisation faced by migrant domestic workers.

Our holistic approach includes counselling, education, training, and facilitating access to healthcare and advice, ensuring these vital workers receive the dignity and support they deserve.

More information about our work is here.

What are we looking for?

We are looking to expand our pool of female Tagalog interpreters to provide face-to-face interpretation during counselling sessions (conducted via Zoom).

Supporting Migrant Domestic Workers across London, our sessions take place on some Sundays and weekday evenings.

This role requires exceptional emotional sensitivity, as the women we support may share deeply personal experiences and potentially traumatic circumstances. You will serve as a bridge of understanding, ensuring our members can access the therapeutic support they deserve with dignity and cultural awareness.

Responsibilities

- Provide accurate interpretation services between English and Tagalog Maintain confidentiality and handle sensitive information with care.

Our requirements

- Native or near-native fluency in Tagalog and English
- Strong verbal communication skills in both languages
- Understanding of cultural nuances and sensitivities
- Experience working with vulnerable people preferred
- Available on weekday evenings and occasional Sundays (We will ask in advance when we need your services as we are piloting a new scheme)
- Must be registered as self-employed or willing to register
- Female applicants only - this is a genuine occupational requirement as you will be supporting women who may feel more comfortable discussing sensitive and traumatic experiences with a female interpreter.

What We Offer

- Meaningful work supporting a vital cause
- £18 per hour
- Opportunity to make a real difference in women's lives
- Flexible working arrangements - work remotely
